Rules Additions, Deletions, Clarifications and Modifications:

1)The previous rule covering automatic poltroonery is hereby revoked. It seems that poltroonery has become a national past-time. Henceforth, if you wish your character to poltroon, you must submit your orders for such action on a timely basis.

Le Gossipe Parisienne

PARIS SHOCKED! de LAMPALLE CASE THROWN OUT OF COURT! COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC SAFETY LOSES POSITION!

In a surprise move, the case against Mssr. Joffrey de Lampalle was dismissed today despite overwhelming testimony by some of the most illustrious members of Parisienne society. At a special press conference this afternoon, the Commissioner of Public Safety announced his resignation(rumored to have been requested by the King), saying that he could not in good conscience continue in office when the likes of such criminals as tried here today are set free without the least punishment. Shortly thereafter, Mssr. Bete de System, de Lampalle's lawyer, denied as totally unfounded, "those vicious rumors, no doubt started by the recently dismissed Commissioner of Public Safety, that I bribed the Minister of State in this matter." Rumors persist, however, that the Minister of State(who tried this case) was seen with Mssr. de System, and that a large brown envelope exchanged hands.

SPECIAL NOTES: Brian Bilski has returned to continue play as LaVache.

David DeLancy is a new player. His character is Christian Terrault, the second son of a well-to-do gentleman. He may be reached at Suffield Academy, Suffield, Ct. 06078

Dubois was guilty of poltrooning(but not blatantly).

Matusse poltrooned a second time(blantent). However, the King, will permit Mssr Matusse to volunteer for a special assignment(suicide mission). If he does so, the player may start a new character next time, otherwise, Mssr. Matusse must eradicate this blot on his record by serving with a frontier regiment until mentioned in dispatches.

Mssr. Dolokhov is in a particularly good position, finding that he may purchase the newly vacated position of Lt. Colonel of the Princess Louise Lt. Dragoons(PLLD).

Fall 1613 Actions must be received by February 23, 1983, at THE KING's RESIDENCE, 206 School Street, Fairfield, Ct., 06460.

NOTES FROM THE JOURNAL OF THE ROYAL ZOOLOGICAL SOCIETY - Edited by LORD HARRISON BURKE, Summer, 1826.

- IN EUROPE

Professor O'Foran, claiming that no one's guesses as to the number of grains of sand in his large jar was even close, has reopened the contest. The professor received 200 more entries and the contest was closed, again. He announced that he would make the results public in the near future. It has been reported that he was seen buying tickets for an undisclosed location from a steam ship company in Dublin, but this rumor has not been confirmed.

It seems that a bidding war over Doctor Hypo Guy Cemias's secret recipe for a new Bon-Bon flavor, even sweeter than sugar itself, has escalated. Chez Chocolate, the international house of chocolate, has given a $100 donation to help the good doctor continue his work in Africa. The Royal Zoological Society has, in the past, praised the good doctor's work in Africa, but is appalled at what seems to be a blatant exploitation of the natives of Africa. It is the duty of the scientific community to see that the "children of Africa" are protected and allowed to mature in their natural state. The society can not condone an action which will result in the rape of Africa.

It is unknown as to whether Austin P(Proudfoot) Train raised any money this time. He has not been heard from in some time. There are claims that he is hunting leopards 'down under'.

Police officials in Paris have given MADEMOISELLE ROXY LaRUE a ticket to Brass, and asked her to use it as soon as possible. It seems that her latest monograph has made her very popular on the streets of Paris.

The GEOLOGICAL RESEARCH AND EXPLORATORY EXPEDITION has not yet named a replacement for the recently deceased FENWICK FEATHERSTONE.

- IN AFRICA:

VIC "TANBOOY" McBUNS reluctantly hires a guide for 5 gifts from the Marahan tribe and moves on. McBuns continues up the Blue Nile(hexes 102->207). Hex 207 is a mountainous hex, with a highest peak of 14,000 ft., and the river turning in direction 6. Vic decides to stop on the mountain top and do some competition sun bathing, which is a mistake. 12 Warriors of the Bishari tribe attack McBun's expedition, by ambush. McBuns escapes alone without any food or weapons.

DRY'GO DE DAGO, unable to advance through the jungle-swamp, decides to retreat back down the river, hexes 285->261->260, which is a lake hex. He attempts to explore hex 259, which is a veldt hex, with a river source flowing over a 180 ft. cataract into the lake(hex 260). His hunters each obtain 1 ration, which saves his expedition from total starvation. He is able to feed all the men, except 3 bearers, who all manage to avoid becoming sick. Dago finds his expedition surrounded by 48 warriors of the Bassanga, while he is looking for neat things. He approaches the chief in an open and friendly manner. The chief is impressed by this act of courage and does not kill Dago. Dago may study and trade with the Bassanga tribe next turn. Guides hire on for 3 gifts, Askaris for 4 gifts and bearers for 3 gifts. He can trade for rations at the rate of one gift per ration. Canoes sell for 4 gifts each.

The Right Reverend TWOMBLY decides that marching across the continent may not be as easy as he first thought and stops to reconsider such an epic journey. He convinces his guide that the stars favor such a journey and they will continue next turn. His hunting provides the expedition with 2 rations.
